

Salisbury University Department of Mathematical SciencesMATH 140 : College Algebra and Trigonometry
Syllabus (Tentative)

Description: Applications-oriented college algebra and trigonometry course for students planning to study science or additional mathematics. Emphasizes computational, qualitative, visual and symbolic approaches. Topics include functions and graphs; exponential, logarithmic and trigonometric functions; and difference equations. 4 Hours Credit: Meets four hours per week. Meets General Education IVB or IVC.

Prerequisites:

